

Visit Suncam.com for more courses

Continuing Education Course #546
Illinois Statutes and Rules for Structural Engineers

1. Who enacts the Illinois Compiled Statutes (ILCS)?
 - a. Fighting Illini
 - b. Illinois General Assembly
 - c. Illinois Capital Group
 - d. Committee of Directors
2. Which does NOT govern structural engineering?
 - a. 225 ILCS 325
 - b. 225 ILCS 340
 - c. IAC Part 1480
3. What does IDFPR stand for?
 - a. Illinois Department of Financial and Professional Regulation
 - b. Illinois Department of Fire and Professional Registration
 - c. Illinois Department of Frugality and Professional Regulation
4. Which rule governs structural engineering?
 - a. IAC Part 150
 - b. IAC Part 1380
 - c. IAC Part 1480
5. Which is NOT a section in IAC 1480?
 - a. Home Rules
 - b. Inactive Status
 - c. Standards of Professional Conduct
 - d. Continuing Education
6. Where should an engineer sign?
 - a. Over the seal
 - b. Adjacent to the seal
 - c. Inside the seal
7. Is there a seal size requirement?
 - a. Yes
 - b. No
8. Which is NOT an example of the practice of structural engineering?
 - a. Energy analysis
 - b. Girders

- c. Trusses
- d. Strength Calculations

9. What is the maximum CE hours from in-house courses, for each two-year renewal?

- a. 10
- b. 12
- c. 15

10. Which course topic is NOT required for structural engineering renewal?

- a. Professional conduct
- b. Illinois statutes and rules
- c. Safety in design
- d. Sexual harassment

Purchase this course on Suncam.com