

Visit Suncam.com for more courses

Continuing Education Course #551
North Carolina Rules of Professional Conduct

1. What does NCGS stand for?
  - a. North Carolina General Statutes
  - b. North Carolina Global Statutes
  - c. North Carolina Government Services
2. Which Chapter is entitled "Engineering and Land Surveying"?
  - a. NCGS 56
  - b. NCGS 89C
  - c. NCAC 21
3. Who is given authority to adopt rules for professional conduct of engineers?
  - a. Board for Engineers and Architects
  - b. Board of Examiners for Professional Engineers and Land Surveyors
  - c. Board of Examiners for Licensees
  - d. Governor
4. What does NCAC stand for?
  - a. North Carolina Administrative Codes
  - b. North Carolina Approved Codes
  - c. North Carolina Appendix of Clauses
5. To whom does 21 NCAC 56.07 apply?
  - a. Engineers
  - b. Engineers and Surveyors
  - c. Engineers and Architects
6. Which should be protected per 21 NCAC 56.0701, b?
  - a. rights of citizens
  - b. society and environment
  - c. public health, safety, and welfare
7. In what areas can a licensee perform services?
  - a. Discipline listed on license
  - b. Areas of competence
  - c. Topics of education courses taken
8. What constitutes responsible charge of engineering work?
  - a. Direct control and personal supervision
  - b. Education and qualifications
  - c. Overseeing construction

9. On what basis should a licensee solicit and accept work?

- a. Discount prices
- b. Competitive edge
- c. Qualifications
- d. Number of licenses

10. What is required when preparing articles for the public?

- a. Stating degree received
- b. Giving credit for work by others
- c. Listing license expiration date

Purchase this course on Suncam.com